

ADDRESSING THE HEALTHCARE NEEDS OF AMISH AND PLAIN COMMUNITIES

June 7-9, 2017

The Center for Appalachia Research in Cancer Education (CARE) invites you to participate as an exhibitor or sponsor during its first National Amish Health Conference: Addressing the Healthcare Needs of Amish and Plain Communities. This conference is the premier continuing education event for evidence-based, community led initiatives that have improved the health of the Amish and Plain Communities. The conference will be at Mohican State Park Resort and Conference Center, in the Heart of Ohio's Amish community.

Don't miss this opportunity to interact with the most vibrant, skilled and dedicated Amish and Plain community members, community practitioners and researchers across the country. Conference attendees represent rural communities. Attendees and presenters are employed by hospitals, colleges and universities, health insurance companies, local and state health department or other government agencies that address the healthcare needs of the Amish and Plain communities, or simply live in the Amish and Plain communities and are interested in attending.

To be part of this this conference, please complete and return the form on page 3. A member of the planning committee will confirm receipt of your application and provide directions to Mohican State Park, set-up times, accommodation and lodging information, the shipping address and other details. To learn more about the conference location, visit <http://www.mohicanstateparklodge.com/>

CARE has implemented a sponsor/exhibit structure for 2017 to provide for greater networking opportunities between conference participants and sponsors.
